

JUDY

Australian, late 40s-50s – Harry’s second, younger (but not by very much), wife. Outgoing and sexy.

JUDY: Divorced years ago. When we realised I Couldn’t have children, and my husband wouldn’t adopt.

He left me for someone else. They had children. Anyway, when he left me there I was: solo, blonde, and big tits.Men!

It was like having a bunch of fox terriers yapping round your place night and day. For years my sex life was bi-polar:

some intense highs, but huge amounts of time in black despair. Betrayed, abused, taken advantage of.

Plus a lot of guilt. Because I had an abortion as a teenager.

According to the Church, I should have had the child. That’s when I broke with the Church.

But lately I’ve been feeling more and more that I should have had the baby...what a terrible thing it was that I did.
