

Maria (Female, any age)

I work for Dr Jenkins in flat 6 on Fridays. He has an alarm by the front door which I set when I finish. It has a clock on it Then I walk down the two floors to Miss Moorland's and let myself in. She often left my money in an envelope on the hall table but it wasn't there. So I went into the lounge. The room is open, you know, it has no door, so I always call "Hallo, it's me" before going in. Miss Moorland was on the settee with that man - I am sorry.

When I think what he did to her. Miss Moorland asked me to iron a blouse, as she was going out. I went into the kitchen and set up the ironing board and iron, then went back to ask if they would like some more coffee. I had seen two empty mugs on the coffee table. Miss Moorland said "No" and the man shook his head. Then I went with Miss Moorland into the bedroom. She gave me my money and said she would do the blouse herself before she had a bath. Then told me she would see me Monday and came to shut the front door. It was as if she wanted me to go quickly.
